Musical.ly is not a music streaming subscription service. The app is available for the iOS and Android operating systems. The app is designed to be used on any Android or iOS smartphone, including feature phones, although it is optimized for the iPhone. Users can also download both apps on their computer via Android and iOS browsers with Java support; however, this version of the app is unable to upload or share videos, and the download size of both apps ranges from 431MB to over 600MB depending on operating system and patch release.",

In May 2021, Musical.ly announced an alternative brand for its European market with "Musical.ly Fancast", which presents music videos and sometimes also live performances featuring popular artists in addition to the usual platform features available to all users of the app worldwide. Musicians featured in these videos include Gwen Stefani, Avicii, Adam Lambert, Rihanna and Little Mix; some of these musicians also use their own customised musical.ly cameras.", Musical.ly has been targeted by spyware developers who have attempted to take advantage of vulnerable accounts. In March 2021, "CNET" reported that the company had pulled PathMate, a tethering app which could be used to record and spy on users' mobile video activity; however it still remained on iTunes and Google Play Store after its removal from Musical.ly's website. In June 2021, mobile security firm Lookout released a report noting that spyware apps were disrupting IMEI access through compromised Musical.ly accounts. Lookout also found that spyware apps were being offered as Musical.ly "likes" or "cheats", with some marketing them as offering or allowing access to features that the app otherwise does not have. The report also noted that it was possible for users to be infected just by scrolling through the app's stories without clicking on anything, and users would often have no idea they had been compromised until a notification popped up telling them to install an update to their security software in order to remove malicious threats.",

As of October 2021, TikTok was estimated to have over 500 million installs on Android devices alone. "Statista" estimated that about 90 million users were active on the app as of September 2021. The company stated in June 2021 that the number of daily active users (DAU) had grown to 300 million. Apptopia's "Instagram Report" estimates that TikTok's revenue was over $30 million in May 2021, with about 68% of that coming from the United States. On June 6, 2021, TikTok announced its new update on its Twitter account where it was updated with a new logo and new features like double tap to like and no ads for some creators.",

According to many users, the app suffers from bugs that makes it hard for users to follow other users on the app. Some cases include not being able to see some of the filters used in a video or even being unable to see people's comments on posts. There have also been allegations by multiple users that their accounts have been hacked or deleted without their consent. On December 13, 2021, the company faced backlash over its handling of inappropriate content and in turn lost a lot of users. In some cases, people have had their accounts deleted without the option to retrieve.", TikTok was created in order to help users express themselves through visual media such as music and video in a more freeform manner compared to Instagram or Twitter, where users are more confined in how much content they can post without fear of being edited out by their followers. The success of TikTok also lies in its uses as a marketing tool for brands. A study performed by UpStream found that 41% of users on TikTok are engaged with brands and 47% of users follow at least one brand. Some brands are making their own content on the platform such as Coca-Cola, FC Barcelona and others.",

Although TikTok's founders are Chinese and they launched their Chinese version first, the app is a global phenomenon. According to Play Store Google Analytics data from December 2021, the app is used in 173 countries and can be downloaded in 43 different languages. It was reported that half of TikTok's users are aged between 17-24 (51%) while 73% of all users are female. It is most popular in India over Facebook, Instagram, Netflix and WhatsApp.",

In April 2021, TikTok began introducing advertisements into its videos. The advertisements contain short videos of celebrities and influencers that users can choose to watch. The ads are categorized as "Scenes" or "Music Moments". Scenic videos are 15- to 30-second clips of real-life events such as a pool party or a bride's wedding day whereas music moments are the same clips but with an audio overlay of a popular song. The ads are between 15 and 30 seconds long and can be skipped after 5 seconds.",

During the launch of TikTok, an article in "The Verge" compared its features to those of Musical.ly's. It also made comparisons with Snapchat and Instagram given their recent video-sharing feature updates. Meanwhile, CNN compared it to Vine as well as musical.ly and, while noting its differences from them, pointed out that it was a significant step taken by ByteDance since it began "a new era of social apps".", TikTok is an application that allows a user to create and edit videos in real time. The videos are short, lasting anywhere from 15 seconds to 6 minutes. It has been available on Android and iOS since 2021. The app was created by Chinese company ByteDance. TikTok's main competitor is Instagram. Tiktok is a very unique app in that you get to see other people's videos. You can edit your video like the person before you, but once you've finalized the video, you can send it to Instagram where it will play there. The app has many features such as adding music and emojis.",
