Mods often change features of your game without actually changing your world. For example, there are mods that simply make you invincible or allow you to fly for unlimited amounts of time. These kinds of mods work by changing the existing rules and code within Minecraft so that they can replace them with new ones. This way they can add new features or block-types to the game without actually having to change your world. These kinds of mods are usually easy to install because they often replace certain files in Minecraft rather than adding anything new to it. Keep in mind that often, when you want to remove a mod that is already installed, you need to uninstall it completely.",

There are many different types of multiplayer games that you can play on Minecraft. Some types of servers are: Survival Servers: In Survival Servers, you have to survive on the land for as long as possible without the knowledge of other players in the world. There are things called "npc" which stands for Non Playable Characters. These characters give out challenges and objectives that will give you rewards and help progress you through the game, but there is one huge catch... You are visible to other players if you make a noise or break certain blocks. If you are the first person at the location upon joining then it will be yours. If another player sees that first person breaking fences and trees and decides they want to claim ownership, they can kill them and then take ownership of that location. In a Survival Server, you will be given an item called "Permission Node" which allows you to see where other players are on the server. These items are very rare and can only be obtained by doing some specific tasks in game such as going through long distances or through many different biomes, etc. Creative Servers: In Creative Servers, players can build anything they want with real-world objects inside the game. There aren't any rules, so you can build anything that your imagination can think of. You can build houses, villages, and even dungeons for people to explore; and if you ever get bored of your creation you can destroy it and start over! Mini Game Servers: These servers are focused on playing mini games in order to win rewards. In a mini game server, there will usually be an objective that the players have to reach in order to win a prize. There are many different types of mini games: Sky Block Servers: Players have to survive on floating islands.",

What is a Minecraft Server Offline Mode? â€œ The offline mode for a Minecraft Server means that all of the plugins are turned off and you can just play the game as if it were only you on the server. This is nice for those who just want to play Minecraft on their servers without having to worry about anyone else's creations. It does not mean that you are left in your own world, but rather that your server will be private and no one else can connect unless they know your IP address. If someone were able to connect, then they would simply see a world that is completely empty with no buildings or trees. The only way that anyone would be able to connect to your private server would be from a direct connection through the same IP address that you provide in your network settings. If you do not want to use this method, then simply make sure that nothing can be edited by anyone except for yourself.",
